Main Presentations –

Charles Bryson from the Mayor's Office – He thanked us for all that we do to make this neighborhood great. Many changes have been made in the last five years. Ken Ortmann knows how to turn around a neighborhood. There has been a large effort by the mayor's office and city officials. He mentioned things going on in the city: Ballpark Village, bringing in more conferences, large bridge project, and summer jobs initiative. If anyone knows of businesses looking to hire summer help please call Charles at his direct line 314-622-4043. He also spoke of housing development and how to green up the city. The city budget has lost about 28% of federal funding in the last five years. They are still bringing good if not better service to us. The mayor brought the city view program to help keep a look at government offices although a lot of the city government is not under the authority of the mayor. They are working very hard to keep the same services available to us and they know the neighborhoods are the backbone of the city. He then answered questions regarding the Public Schools: as of June 15th the state is un-accrediting St. Louis Public Schools. The mayor's position is that the system is not working and that they are hoping for there not to be a lawsuit so we can move forward with change. Charles's wife teaches in public schools so he hears first hand about the issues going on within the public schools. They would like to get greater parent involvement. There are three new charter schools opening up this fall. We all need to be committed to education.

Highway 40: The obvious challenge is traffic flow. They are keeping an open relationship with MoBot. The construction may hurt our revenue and businesses. Charles would love for us to see how we can market from this by keeping people in the city during high traffic hours.

Public Transportation: Mayor's office is working with Trail Net and Metro. Bistate bus is cutting things. We need to decide as a city and region what we want to do regarding public transportation. As gas prices go up the need will present itself.
